Saturday, June 18th, marks the official Grand Opening of Mission Brewery's new Downtown location, inside the historic Wonderbread Factory. To celebrate, Mission is hosting a party: where guests can enjoy their choice of beers on draft as well as sample a couple ultra small batch, prototype beers from Mission Brewmaster, John Egan, reserved just for the occasion. Mission has also invited 5 of their favorite restaurants and chefs from The Blind Lady, Cafe Chloe, The Corner, Hamilton's, The Handlery & Neighborhood, who will be serving up small plates of their most popular dishes to help keep your brew imbibing in check. Tickets are $15 online, and $20 at the door. For more info visit www.missionbrewery.com. Mission Brewery will be open to the public Mon-Sat 12-8pm & Sundays 12-5pm. They'll be open earlier on Padre game days. (1441 L St.)

Sé Hotel San Diego is hosting a series of pool parties called SPF (Siren Pool Fete) at Se. SPF rooftop pool parties kick-off at 3pm on Fridays, with a "Free @ Three" happy hour that includes free appetizers and $5 drink specials. Check out SPF on Saturdays for a more revv'd up dance party hosted by DJHere Productions. Or, if you're looking to get away from the overwhelming crowds and outright debauchery at some of the other funday parties, SPF Sundays are all about sipping cocktails and mellowing out to lounge-y, downtempo house sounds. What really caught our eyes (and our appetites) is the selection of goodies on SPF's summer menu, which includes: "Adult" Snocones, booze-infused ice creams & their specialty seasonal finger-foods. Drink specials, dance music, and alcoholic ice cream sundaes?! Everything you need, and nothing you don't. (1047 5th Ave.)
